²Eligibility for Pupil Premium:

*For the purposes of the school's admission policy you are considered to be entitled to free school meals if you or your child receives any of the following:

- Universal Credit
- Income Support;
- income-based Jobseekers Allowance;
- an income-related employment and support allowance;
- support under part VI of the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999
- Child Tax Credit (provided they are not entitled to Working Tax Credit) and have an annual income that, from 6 April 2011, does not exceed £16,190 (as assessed by Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs);
- where a parent is entitled to the Working Tax Credit run-on (the payment someone receives for a further four weeks after they stop qualifying for Working Tax Credit);
- the Guarantee element of State Pension Credit

If at any point within the last 6 years your child has been registered as eligible for free school meals you will need to provide evidence of this. This may be a letter from a predecessor school or your local authority confirming eligibility for free school meals or other evidence showing your child was registered as eligible for/ in receipt of free school meals.

³Eligibility for Service Premium

Any documentary evidence from your regiment/unit confirming one or more parents are a currently serving member of the regular UK armed forces, that they were serving within the last 3 years or that the child is in receipt of a pension under the Armed Forces Compensation Scheme (AFCS) and the War Pensions Scheme (WPS), owing to their parents dying while serving in the UK Armed Forces. If parents are separated or divorced, evidence should be supplied to show that the prime carer for the child is serving in the military or was within the last 3 years.
